............................. Store Closes Daily at 5:30 P. M.

ESTABLISHED 1853

INDIANA'S GREATEST STORE

Crisp and Cool for Hot Weather Wear-Prices are Considerably Lower.

Striped and corded wash Silks in colors and white, best 50c and 60c qualities, Tuesday while 25c they last, a yard... Plain white wash Silks, splendid value, Tuesday, a yard. Plain black Japanese Silk, 24 inches wide, 39c a yard.

Black guaranteed Taffeta . . . 55c yd. 27-inch black Peau de Soie . . 95c vd. 36-inch black Taffeta . . . . . 95c yd. Guarantee woven in edge. -West Aisle.

Tettes Dry Goods 60 cle Agents Butterick Patterns.

If You've

NEVER MADE A VISIT TO OUR STORE .

You've Missed

ONE OF THE SIGHTS OF INDIANAPOLIS....

If you're interested at all in

Snappy, Stylish Apparel for Men

IT WILL PAY YOU TO CALL

PAUL H. KRAUSS 44 East Washington St.

If you pay more than we charge for repairing your Watch you pay too

Main Springs.....50c Cleaning ...... 50c Crystals .....10c

Fletcher M. Noe, Jeweler, 103 North Illinois St.

BEEHIVE TRUNK FACTORY Trunks,

SUIT CASES, SATCHELS, &c.

L. E. Morrison & Co.

27 West Washington St.

Largest Stock Shoes. LOWEST PRICES. Geo. J. Marott 26 and 28 E. Washington St.

MUSIC OF A HIGH CLASS

METROPOLITAN OPERA COMPANY SINGER AT FAIR BANK.

B. Begue's Rich Baritone Voice Makes an Impression-Misses Valdes and Brehany Heard.

An excellent concert programme was some time next month. given at Fair Bank last night. It was an entertainment somewhat above the standard of summer open-air concerts, owing to class. The newcomers for the week were B. Begue, a baritone who sang last season in the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York, and Miss Marie Valdes, a contralto from the famous French Opera organization of New Orleans.

vantage in the familiar but always wel- | noon in this city to-day. Elder Rolla Smith, come Toreador song from Bizet's tuneful of Hendricks county, a brother of the bride, "Carmen." His full, rich baritone rang out clear and sweet, and could easily be heard afternoon train for Colorado and other Wesin all parts of the park. His success was assured from the start and in response to an enthusiastic demand for an encore he rendered the well known sacred song "The Palms" with fine effect. Miss Valdes offered as her numbers "La Reine de Salba," by Gounod, and the contralto ballad from "Il Trovatore"-two difficult selections which, however, she sang with ease and in good

'The Crucifix.' Miss Louise Brehany, the young soprano who was so well received last week, repented her success. Her voice is peculiarly adapted to out-of-door singing and her choice of songs last night was a happy one. She sang the beautiful ballads, "Lover's Sorrow." "Thine Forever" and "My Dream of You," and as an encore number the ever delightful "Annie Laurie." The instrumental programme was well arenjoyed by the blg summer evening crowd. asquale Montani was the band soloist, playon the flute. With the three excellent singers and the band in better form than it has been before this summer, the context at Fair Bank this week would seem end of a Louisville cross-street, was frank- home of G. T. Bigelow, 2720 State street, strike the policeman with a pair of when a domestic was received and offered a position as cook. The independent atticated a position as cook at singers and the band in better form than it has been before this summer, the concerts at Fair Bank this week would seem. Rice, the optimistic heroine of the books,

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

for New York. Mr. W. L. Horne is spending a few days Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Arnold have gone to Kentucky to spend a month.

Mr. Paul Krauss has returned from a visit of several weeks in the East. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moores will go to Burt lake for the month of August. Miss Sue Read and Miss Mary Fox have gone to Chicago to visit for ten days. Miss Laura Talbott has gone to Cleveland to spend two weeks with Mrs. Cody. Miss Frances Pangborn has returned from a fortnight's visit in Hanover and Madi-Mrs. Edward Reese and son Meredith will leave Aug. 6 to spend a month in Atlantic Miss Lois Dyer is spending the week at Maxinkuckee with Mrs. Wilbur W.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Robbins and son are at Bass Rocks, Mass., for the summer yesterday from a fortnight's visit at Max- | tinguished suburb. Mrs. D. H. Jackson and Mrs. F. V. Chislett are visiting Col. I. C. Elston in Craw-Miss Mary and Miss Edith McKee, of Piqua, O., are visiting their cousin, Miss Mabel Kregelo.

Miss Myda Eissman, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Miss Loretta Gramling, on North Delaware street. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weslyn Jones have eturned from New York, where they spent

Miss Mary and Mr. Thomas Sullivan are visiting their uncle, Mr. Thomas Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stevenson and family will go to Wabash this week for a visit with friends Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goodall will leave Saturday to spend the month of August at Green Lake, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wright and Miss Mabel Talbott are spending two months at Bass Rocks, Mass.

Mrs. L. M. Overstreet and Miss Sallie and Harold Overstreet left yesterday for Louis-Miss Marie Aneshaensel, who is the guest of Miss Elsa Habing, will return Thursday to her home in Chicago. Miss Anna Louise Beck will go to Baltimore to spend the month of August with Miss Elizabeth Rieman. Miss Blessing Strong, of Long Island

City, will come this week to be the guest of Miss Hazel Spellman. Mrs. George Gaston is spending a fort-night with Mr. and Mrs. David Wallace at their farm near Cataract. Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Recker have returned from the East, where they have been since their marriage on June 30 Mrs. Byfield and daughter, Miss Emma Byfield, are spending the week with Mrs. Luther Short, in Franklin. Mrs. Edward Daniels will leave early in August to spend the remainder of the sum-mer at Burt Lake, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. L. Treat will leave the latter part of the month for a visit in Saratoga and New York. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ford, of Chi cago, are spending a few days with Mrs. Frank Newcom on Walnut street.

Mr. Lawrence Davis gave an enjoyable dance at Broad Ripple last night in honor of Miss Schlessinger, of Cleveland. Mrs. William Lockwood and Miss Margaret Lockwood have gone to Walloon lake for the remainder of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stevenson and daughter Edna left yesterday to spend the remainder of the summer in Vermont. Mr. George W. Pangborn has gone to Wawasee, where he will be joined later by Mrs. Pangborn and Miss Pangborn. Miss Genevieve Scovell will entertain few friends at cards this afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Miller, of Raleigh, N. C. Miss Alberta Mahan, who is visiting in Washington, Ind., will go from there today to French Lick to join a party of Mr. Albert R. Thompson has returned from Liberty, where he spent a few days with Mrs. Thompson, who is there for the Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dorsey Forrest and Miss Allen are taking the Kentucky river trip and will spend some time at Estill

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Van Camp and son Courtland will leave to-morrow to visit in New York, Saratoga and Watch Hill,

Mrs. Charles A. Reamer has returned to her home in Bedford Springs, Pa., after a visit of several months with Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Clark Mallery has returned from Reading, Mich., where she spent several weeks. Mr. Mallery has returned from a Mrs. John Sage, Mrs. Davidson and Miss Margaret Cravens have returned from Madison, where they have been since return-ing from an Eastern visit. Mr. Charles A. Korbly, who spent a few days in town, has returned to Madison to join Mrs. Korbly, accompanied by Mr. John T. Moore, who will be their guest.

Miss Minnie Stoddard, of Minneapolis, formerly of this city, will arrive the first of the month to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Hawkins, on North Pennsylof Chicago, with Mrs. Herbert Hadley, was among the guests. Mrs. Charles Pool, of St. Louis, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hadley, who will visit her. Miss Lillian Ittenbach was the hostess for a dancing party last night at the Canoe Club in honor of Miss Aneshaensel, of Chicago, and Miss Eissmen and Miss Comrabes, of Cincinnati. About forty young people were entertained. Mrs. A. R. Monroe will give a trolley party to-night in honor of her daughter. Cora Monroe, and her guest, Miss ing Miss Lena Cunningham. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Haas, with their daughters Miss Isabel and Rose and son Louis, have left for an extended trip to Northern Michigan resorts to be gone some time. They are at present at the Arlington Hotel at Petoskey, Mich. Their son Morris, who is traveling in Europe, will return A club consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Skidmore, Mr. and Mrs. John Oxenford, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Everthe fact that the vocal soliosts chose to de- itt, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bessire, Dr. and vote themselves to music of the highest Mrs. C. A. Stafford, Dr. and Mrs. Lon Chapman and Mrs. Sarah Dudbridge will have supper and play cards at Broad Ripple this evening.

Mr. Begue's voice was heard to much ad- | McFerran, of Zousville, were married at officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left on an tern states. They will return in September and live in Zionsville., where Mr. Higgins is pastor of the Christian Church. CALVERY-SOMES.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Fred W. Calvery and Miss Mary Elizabeth Somes surprised their friends last to-night by being married by the Rev. Fred Berget voice. Later in the programme Mr. Begue and Miss Valdes gave two duets—a selection from "Il Trovatore" and one from Chicago. They are among the most prominent young people here.

The Troubles of Mrs. Wiggs.

It is often a question whether help furnished to the many is a thorough offset to harm done to the few. That bright little humble chronicle, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," and its cheerful sequel "Lovey Mary" are not, it appears, altogether without disastrous consequences. As the location of the "Cabbage Patch," at the far

Mr. Charles W. Tutewiler left yesterday | curious and interested literary public and also much annoyed. Recent Indiana tourists to the "Cabbage Patch" found Mrs. Wiggs loath to be inspected and interviewed and during the interview she wept freely and narrated her troubles.

Nothing in all her life, Mrs. Wiggs said, had ever given her so much distress as Mrs. Rice's highly colored publication of her experiences. When she told her story to Mrs. Hegan, she stated, it was under pledge of confidence; and she had no idea that the results would be so widespread and disturbing. Now visitors throng daily to the "Cabbage Patch," peer over the tumbledown fences and poke about among the shabby little houses vexing and irritating all the dwellers of that unkempt but picturesque locality. The whole neighborhood is in arms against Mrs. Wiggs and she is so unpopular because of her attractiveness to an alien literary element that she fears Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Benton returned | she will have to move to some less dis-

Of Miss Hazy Mrs. Wiggs disclaims any knowledge, but she confidently puts forth the opinion that she must have been some of the author's "own folks."

Not an Acute Angle.

She was a girl who had been accustomed to be considered the Wnole Thing. In the little country village where she lived her father was the only rich man, and when she came to the city for a boarding-school finish she was naturally disappointed that her schoolmates were not so much impressed by her superior manner and expensive clothes as she had expected them to be. Redoubling her efforts her manner grew daily more gushing, her attire more elaborate. At last she played her trump card. Getting two or three of the girls into her room she revealed to them in thrilling whispers that she had a whole letters that ever were-all from one peranybody-not for anything in the world- land by way of Canton, and thence to Tobut she would let them see just the beginning of one, and from that they would know what they were all like. She unlocked her trunk and extracted the box. The thrilling revelation was near. She selected a letter. She folded it over so that only the superscription was visible, and with many blushes and giggles held it up for their inspection. And it read: "My darling, blessed little Angle!"

Suggestions to Shoppers.

Bags of scarlet morocco are the newest note in wrist and shopping bags. They are a fad in New York and the scarleter and the bigger they are the smarter they are

XXX Necklaces are much affected by the summer girl, the popular ones being the twentytwo-inch one, with which is worn the locket, or the shorter one with the La Val-

XXX Paper lamp shades sound cheap, but they may cost all the way to $12, and then farther on. One of the handsomest seen in town is of pale lavender with a gladiolus design in deep purples-a color scheme which makes the lamp a delight to the eye, lit or

The little bits of coin purses which just tuck comfortable into the palm are still in favor and may be got in leather with a silver top, for fifty cents. At ninety-eight cents there is a particularly fetching one, very shallow, of steel beads on black with gray silver top.

last Eastern idea in veils will haste to purthe East, though not for the same reason. for there the lavender veiling is sold so A stunning ring of rose gold with lion's head covers one girl's pretty finger almost to the joint. The locks of the Sir Lion's mane flow into the band of the ring, and for eyes he has two tiny emeralds, while n his mouth he bears a sparkling diamond. Girls who want similar rings for their fingers will have to have a man's ring cut down for them, but it is worth while.

Handkerchief kimonas, though three or ty new designs in the big handkerchiefs serving to keep their popularity active. It takes four handkerchiefs for one kimons and there are two ways of fashioning them -either making each sleeve from a handkerchief, the point over the hand, and joining the remaining handkerchiefs to these four into one large square, cutting a diagonal line from one corner to the center of Rondeau for July.

July is dull as autumn gray When fair Priscilla goes away To some far-distant summer place, dainty chiffon and fine lace, And leaves the town for many a day. Alas! I miss her presence gay, Her folly and her laughing way; And when I do not see her face

What charms have high-roof gardens, pray, Or any trivial summer play, For one like me? Sad were my case

If joys so slight I should embrace.

For me and those of my poor clay July is dull. -Charles Hanson Towne, in Judge. It's All a Matter of Luck.

New York Tribune.

"It is hard to judge of girls," remarked a young man. "You see a lot together day after day-their interests are identical, their pretty chatter is on the same subjectslooks, manner and personal charm are all that mark the difference between them. and yet that is the froth on the champagne, the real strength is the important difference in their characters. The strength and sweetness or the weak acidity are all matters more or less of conjecture, and a man never knows until he has drained the cup what his particular portion will be." their real nature," answered the matron to whom he was speaking. "I can recall now a knot of girls like that over there," she continued indicating a gay crowd chattering together like magpies, "about whom I made approximately the same observation fifteen summers ago. The years in their flight have revealed unsuspecting possibilities in nearly all of them. One of the gayest and apparently most frivolous astonished her friends and distressed her family by becoming a Salvation Army lassie, and I hear she is now a captain, working in the slums of London. Another, a quiet little thing, is one of the most talked of women in Europe, a third is a nurse in Manila, a fourth is a well known social leader, while the fifth and last is just an ordinary happy woman, with a good husband and dear

That would have been the one for me if I had been her contemporary?" said the young man, "but, as I say, how is one to know? The possibilities are I would have fallen in love with the wrong one, and been

The Cook's Ultimatum. Milwaukee Journal. "I want $5 a week, the use of the parlor to entertain my friends, the use of the piano for two hours of the day for practice, a second helper and a laundress to do the washing. Under those conditions I will ac-This was the ultimatum received at the Mrs. Wiggs, has been much visited by a to the scarcity of help. Tuesday the em- arrest by him is unusual.

ployment bureau was besieged by applications. Not one has been filled because there are no domestics to be hired. Milwaukee is not alone in suffering from lack of help. Telegrams were received at the employment bureau Tuesday from towns across the lake, asking that a supply of domestics be sent at once. At Ludington twenty are desired in a hurry. The answer went back that Milwaukee was in the throes of a chambermaid famine.

Detroit Women's Beads.

Detroit Journal. "I never saw a fad get such a hold on Detroit women and stay so long as that of wearing a chain," says the saleswoman behind a jewelry counter in an avenue store. "Women began draping themselves with strings of beads about two years ago, and it gets worse every day. 'They used to have a watch, a locket, a purse, or some little charm on the end which they could stick in their belt so as to make believe that the chain was worn now. The chains are as big around as your wrist, some of them, and hang to the knees, with tassels of beads on the end. The colors are outlandish, and so is the weight of the chains. "I shake my head when I see a woman modern business dress beaded like an and absurd. I don't know what we are

CITIES OF OHIO AND PENNSYLVANIA DRAWN CLOSER.

It Is Said There Will Be a Traction Route from This City to Pittsburg by 1904.

Before the beginning of 1904 Indianapolis be connected by trolley with Toledo and Cleveland, O., Wheeling, W. Va., and Pittsburg. Mr. Holland, of the Holland Palace Car Company, returned yesterday from Columbus, O., where he met Richard Emory, superintendent of the Appleyard syndicate, and learned that the syndicate will begin work on the roads at once, with ledo and from Cleveland to Wheeling. This will open the way from Columbus to Pittsfrom this city to Pittsburg. A greater part of the cars on the new system will be made by the Holland Palace Car Company, and will be the finest in the country. They will be provided with a The cars will be sixty-two feet in length and capable of making a high rate The two cars now being made by the Palace Car Company for the Indianapolis & Eastern road will be delivered by the com-

finest interurban cars yet made. ACTON OPENS TO-MORROW

GROUNDS IN READINESS FOR THE ANNUAL ASSEMBLY.

Special Stress Laid on the Hotel Accommodations-Sixty Cottages at the Park.

Indianapolis girls who want to follow the until Aug. 12. Prospects for the most succhase a length of lavender chiffon or net. bright and those in charge are preparing It may be a bit difficult to find here as in for the largest attendance for years. Already there are over sixty cottagers on rapidly that it is hard to keep it in stock. | the grounds, many of them having been at the park since May. An elaborate pro-W. Dashiel that contains a number of fea-tures of special interest. The complete programme of the session was printed in the Journal some time ago.

The grounds never looked prettier than now and the entire park and all the various buildings have been cleaned and made ready for the opening of the camp. Acton Park has a wealth of shade trees and the most prominent objects visible upon entering the grounds are the hammocks, which afford comfort for the inhabitants most four months old, are still popular, the pret- of the day. The grass, long and green, adds to the beauty of the park and the children romp and play in the cool of the trees from early morning until late.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS. Of course every camp meeting, like all enterprises, whether religious or otherwise. must have some features on which the to form the front and back, or sewing the press agent can expatiate. The feature of Acton Park Association, containing seven-The hotel has been thoroughly cleaned and the dining room made attractive. Those in charge of the hotel say is now open and ready for the first visitor. Adjoining the inn there is a grocery, where the good housewives of the cottages get their supplies. The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Acton Park Association has arranged a rest cottage for members of the organization who attend the camp and desire to rest. Mrs. Mc-Courtney is president, Mrs. A. I. Simpson vice president, Mrs. Williams secretary, Mrs. Mary Meek treasurer. To-morrow the formal opening of the camp will take place. At 3:30 in the afternoon President J. W. Dashiel will deliver the address of welcome and in the evening a stereopticon lecture will be given by Rev. J. C. Gullett, the subject of which will be 'An Evening with Stereopticon. The transportation facilities this year will be far better than ever before. The Big Four will make a rate and the Shelbyville electric line will run special cars during the LIST OF COTTAGERS. Following is a complete list of those who are now in the cottages:

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryan, Mrs. E. A Miller, Mrs. Wilber Atkinson, Mrs. Charles Linton, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. "They do not know themselves what is | Carl Wert, Mrs. Mary Meek, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Budd, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Budd Mr. and Mrs. George Varin, Mrs. A. E. Pitman and son Eugene, Mrs. M. A. Baird Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Percy, Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Robertson, Miss Josephine Reynolds. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Simpson, Mrs. George Gadd, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Girrard, Mrs. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stuart and son, Mrs. E. A. Fesler, Mrs. Martha Reisner, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. John M. L. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crouch, Mrs. Margaret Stott Mrs. C. W. Tinsley, of Terre Haute; Miss of Shelbyville; Miss Olive Buckner, of of Franklin; Mrs. Martha Lanham, of Parsons City, Kan.; Mrs. S. E. Duffy and L. H. Martin, of Chicago; Mrs. J. D. Speer, of Jacksonville, N. C.

Veteran Policeman Makes Arrest.

Michael Raftery, the veteran member of the Indianapolis police force, made an arrest yesterday afternoon in the person of Edgar Drake, who gives his residence as much irritated to have me there.'

Drake, it is said, stole a quantity of bananas from a vendor's cart while under

Under the order of the superintendent of police, all the patrolmen of the city are keeping their eyes open for unlicensed dogs, and the talk at police headquarters consequently is much of the time very "doggy." Patrolman Dunn was yesterday relating an experience which he said would have for use, but they have given that all up ton avenue when he was approached by Oriental princess. The effect is childish her that he was looking for dogs on which there had been no licenses taken out. "Why, me to your house and show me the dogs." of the brutes. "Do you mean to tell me that you do not own two dogs?" asked the patrolman, who by that time was beginning to believe he was being deceived.

"Oh yes, I forgot, now that you speak of really don't believe they have ever been boxful of the loveliest, splendidest, grandest the specification to have them completed disappeared, but presently came forth carwithin six months. The Ohio syndicate will rying two of the finest little poodles, one couple of kittens until they had run down, burg, and the fact that Indianapolis is wound them up for the officer of the law connected with Dayton and Columbus by and let them run again. "They were tin way of Richmond makes the way clear dogs and run by springs," said the disguested patrolman in telling the story at a notion to make the woman pay a license on them anyway." With that he turned and walked out of the roll-call room amid the kitchen, and meals will be served a la laughter of his fellow-policemen, who seemed to relish the joke much more than the teller of the tale. x x x

ty milliner and a railroad wreck. A bashful

The Indianapolis man sat just behind her and found himself now and then wondering who she was. Once he wished she would ask him to raise a window. Half the men in the car cherished the same wish. But she gramme has been arranged by President J. had a pair of white, shapely hands that were strong enough to raise windows without assistance. There wasn't a man in the car who would not have given up his newspapers or his magazne willingly to her, and finally became exasperating-the fact that she did not ask someone to do some thing for her. The Indianapolis man took particular pains to rustle his newspaper in the hope that she would notice that it was a particular journal that she desired to read. But he might have been a hundred miles away, for she was apparently unaware of his presence.

When the train reached Wabash the men in the car hoped she would express a desire for a sandwich or something of that sort, but she did not. However, there was good luck ahead for the Indianapolis man. It is said that "it's an ill wind that blows nobody good." In making a change of engines at Wabash the air-brake on one of the loco-motives failed to work and the engine humped the train while running at a smart rate of speed. Many of the passengers were the square, hollowing out the neck and dations. The hotel this season will be under unseated and some were slightly injured. catching the sides together for the sleeves. the charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Luckily for the Indianapolis man the cars from his chair with the intention of stepping ty members, each one of whom will aid out to the platform. In attempting to step in giving to the hostelry all the comforts into the aisle he placed his hand on the back of the chair in front of him. As a result of the violent jar he was knocked from his feet, and in falling tumbled into the that good cooks have been secured and all lap of the pretty milliner. "Oh, I beg your the food will be "home made." The hotel pardon," he mumbled, as he hastily gathered himself together out of the young woman's lap.

"No, I beg yours," said the girl. "I had "But I'm glad you were," declared the man, blushing violently. Five minutes later they were pacing the platform together, "Ordinarily," said the girl, "I don't believe in flirtations on railway trains, but I really don't believe I could help making your ac-"I'm sure your husband, who bade you so fond a farewell this morning, won't object," said the man. "Oh," said the girl, "why, that wasn't my husband, that was only my half brother.

We're awfully fond of each other."
"Oh, is that it?" he exclaimed, with a sense of elation that he couldn't for the life of him keep down. Later in the day the man left the train. "There's two things I'm glad of," he said, as he gathered up his belongings. "I wonder what?" she inquired giving him a side glance. "Well, I'm glad we got into a railroad wreck and I can't help feeling a little bit of satisfaction that the young man is your brother. "Well, really," she replied, "I had not thought of it in that way."

"That was rather a singular incident, the way you met the milliner." said the girl in the boat that evening as the Indianapolis man told her of the Wabash shake-up. 'And that just reminds me," she continued, "of how I had to 'turn down' an awfully good-looking man while coming up here on the train the other day. Don't you know I believe I could write a book of instructions for those men who feel it is their duty to make the acquaintance of every good-look-Mrs. E. B. Grube, of Indianapolis; ing woman who travels on a train. Some of these railroad flirts are awfully amateur-Ethel Cooper and Miss Emma Dipboye, of ish. The other day, when I got on the Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. George Wright, train with a lot of boxes and satchels, there were only two seats to be had, so far Shelbyville; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McClain, as I could discern. And really they were only half seats, for each was occupied by a man. The first opportunity I had to sit daughter Edith, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. down was with an awfully handsome man, and I should not have hesitated an instant had he not spoiled it all himself. His face showed too plainly that he wanted me to sit there, and that's just the reason I didn't. If he had not paid any more attention to me than did the homely, unattractive man who sat a few seats behind him I would have been glad to have sat by him instead of the unattractive man, who, I'm sure, was very

Programme at Fairview.

the influence of liquor and attempted to | being shown by the cinematograph at Fairview Park nightly this week. To-night and Thursday the incidental music for the pic-tures will be furnished by the Indianapolis Military Band, which will also render a

The Price of Pleasure.

It is hard for a lovely woman to forego the pleasures of the life which she was created to enjoy and adorn. She may have to be busy all day an office or in store, yet she cannot deny herself the social pleasures which are offered her. But the fatigue is often too great for her, and she sufant, of Lota, Thomas Co., Ga. "I suffered so much with great pains in my back and the lower part of my stomach and palpitation of the heart, that at times I could hardly lie down. Could hardly get up in the morning, but after using three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, I am like a new Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly pri-vate and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

Highest award at World's Columbian An American Champagne acknowledged by connoisseurs on two continents to have no superior. Lovers of pure, delicious champagne should ask for Cook's Imperial, and ecept no substitute.

CLEARANCE SALE OF

Bargains.

SANDER & RECKER

Astonishing Buying Chances.

219, 221, 223 East Washington Street

FINEST TALKING MACHINE STORE in the city. Everything in Talking Machines and Records. COLUMBIA concert programme. The entertainment for this evening will be according to the following programme

Selection-"The Strollers" ..... Englander "In a Cozy Corner" ......Bratton

Mr. Charles J. Keifer.

By MAY MANTON. Eton jackets are becoming to almost all women, and are much in favor because of that fact. This one includes the fashionable stole, with sleeves that are both novel and satisfactory to the wearer. The original is made of the Sicilian mohair, stitched with corticelli silk and trimmed with fancy braid, and makes part of a costume, but the jacket is equally well suited to other suiting

POSTILION.

the coat which matches the skirt. The

The jacket is made with fronts and back. and is finished with a belt that passes under the elongated fronts, at the darts, and is closed beneath them. The sleeves are snug above the elbows, but large enough below to allow of wearing over those of the gown with comfort and case. The stole is a notable feature, and is shaped to fit exactly, its edges meeting below the bust. The quantity of material required for the

The pattern 4474 is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 0 and 42-inch bust measure. PATTERN COUPON.

Allow one week for return of pattern

THOSE DELICIOUS

Steaks and Roasts Come from our market. Choicest cuts always to be had here.

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables just from the garden every morn-

Visit Our Cafe for a Good Meal.

The N. A. Moore Co. OHIO AND ILLINOIS STS. Phones 892.

YOUR SUMMER VACATION.

If you take one you will want to keep in touch with home. The best way to do this is to have the Journal mailed to you. Leave your order before starting. We will change the address as often as you desire.

Indiana Dental College

University of Indianapolis. for all kinds of Dental Work. The fees are to cover the costs only. Receives patients from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

. W. Cor. Delaware and Ohio Streets.

OF THE

Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York

On the 31st day of December, 1902

It is located at Nos. 97-103 Cedar street, New York City, N. Y.

GEORGE F. SEWARD, President.

The amount of its capital paid up agents or other persons ...... Real estate unincumbered Securities owned by the company as per schedule bill .....

Debts otherwise secured ...... Deuts for premiums ..... All other securities ...... 285,000:0

Total assets ......$5,435,810.13 LIABILITIES.

All other claims against the com-Amount necessary to reinsure outstanding risks .....

Contingent fund ...... 250,000.00 Total liabilities ......$3,781,839.57

the said original statement is now on file in this office. In testimony whereof I hereunto subpany on the 31st day of December, 1902, as

SEAL.] cial seal this 4th day of February.

Copy of Statement of the Condition

Eire Insurance Society

On the 31st day of December, 1902

Home Office......Norwich, England

18 ..... 660,000,00

are as follows Cash on hand and in the hands of agents or other persons...... $327,574.02 Bonds owned by the company: United States bonds State, county and municipal Railroad stocks and bonds ...... Loans on bonds and mortgage .... Interest due and accrued...... Debts for premiums .....

260,525.33 Re-insurance due and losses paid. Commissions on unpaid return premiums and re-insurance premiums .....

LIABILITIES. Losses adjusted and due, losses adjusted and not due, losses unadjusted, losses in suspense waiting for further proof..... All other claims against the so-outstanding risks...... 1,442,177.30

Amount necessary to reinsure

State of Indiana, office of Auditor of State. I, the undersigned, auditor of state of the State of Indiana, hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the statement of the condition of the above-mentioned society on the 31st day of December, 1902, as shown by the original statement, and that the said original statement is now on file in this office.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto [SEAL.] cial seal this 5th day of February

A pleasant picnic was given yesterday by a party of twenty women, comprising the members of a neighborhood club. Mrs. Ford,

Hadley for some time, will return home to-day, accompanied by her nephew, Elliott

Mildred O'Brien, of Chicago, and of Miss Florence Guirle, of Memphis, who is visit-

HIGGINS-M'FERRAN. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LEBANON, Ind., July 20.-The Rev. W. G. Higgins, of this city, and Mrs. Olive

VINCENNES, Ind., July 20 .- Attorney

TORIES

been a good joke if it had happened to some other bluecoat than himself. According to his story, he was canvassing Lexingan inquisitive youngster in the person of a red-cheeked girl of probably seven years. "Where are you going, Mr. Policeman?" she asked, and Dunn, with his usual willingness to chat with the children on his beat, told we have two dogs at our house and they haven't got no tags on them," said the child with all the innocence of any girl of tender years. "What?" said Patrolman Dunn, "we will investigate your case right now, little one. Where do you live? Take So the little girl piloted the big policeman seven or eight blocks to her home, where they met the mother of the child on the porch. She became very much agitated, fear-ful lest her daughter had got into some kind of trouble. "Madam, I have come to see your dogs. I understand you have two fine animals on which no license has been paid, and, of course, you know, we patrolmen must do our duty and take the dogs unless we are given proper assurances they will be propertly tagged in the near future," said Dunn. The mother of the little girl threw up her hands and declared that she had never owned a dog in her life and had no intention of ever owning one, let alone two

it. I remember we have two dogs and I licensed either. Just wait a moment and I will bring them out so that you can see When she put them down on the the police station, "but for a moment I had

This is the story of a summer day, a pret-

pany by Sept. 1. They are said to be the Indianapolis man also figures in the narrative. It happened about a week ago at the picturesque little railway station owned by the Big Four at Wabash. The Indianapolis man was on his way to a northern lake for an outing and had a seat in the parlor car. The pretty milliner got on the train at Alexandria. The passengers, and among them the Indianapolis man, noticed that a handsome, athletic looking young fellow put her on the train and gave her an affectionate embrace at parting. Some of the passengers decided that he held her in his arms a little too long for a mere relative-brother for instance-and the Indianapolis man concluded he was her husband. The train made its way northward along the hot, dusty track. The pretty milliner set-Acton Park, the Methodist camp meeting | tled herself in a chair and prepared for a ground, is awakening from its long sleep long ride. Her stylish headgear swung from and taking on the appearance of life, which a hook above her chair. A fashionable sumcharacterizes it during the annual session, mer ulster hung from another hook. She which will begin to morrow and continue spread newspapers and magazines and bon bons on the chair in front of her. She wasn't cessful camp in the history of the park are haughty, but she didn't see the rest of the no business to be here in your way.' waiting for the train to start. quaintance under the circumstances."

Entirely new sets of moving pictures are

A Host of Incomparable

FURNITURE CO.

PHONOGRAPH CO. 114 West Washington Street, Claypool Hotel.

Overture-"Jubilee" ...... Bach A Tone Picture-"North and South' .. ' .. Song for Cornet-"Violets" .. Ellen Wright

Medley-"Merry Makers" ..... De Witt Cinematograph. HOME DRESSMAKING HINTS.

4474 Etou Jacket, 32 to 42 bust. TO BE MADE WITH OR WITHOUT THE medium size is 3% yards 21 inches wide, 2 yards 44 inches wide, or 1% yards 52 inches

For patterns of garment illustrated above send to cents (coin or stamps.)
Cut out illustration and inclose it in letter.
Write your name and address distinctly and state number and size wanted. Address
Pattern Dept., The Journal,
Indianapolis, Ind.

Department of Dentistry

Copy of Statement of the Condition

ROB'T J. HILLAS, Sec. and Treas.

The Assets of the Company are as follows:

Cash on hand and in the hands of Losses in process of adjustment, or in suspense, including all re-ported or supposed losses ..... 202,693.45

State of Indiana, Office of Auditor of State. I, the undersigned, auditor of state of the State of Indiana, hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the statement of the condition of the above-mentioned com-shown by the original statement, and that scribe my name and affix my off-

D. E. SHERRICK, Auditor of State.

UNITED STATES BRANCH OF THE

It is located at Nos. 56 and 58 Pine street. New York City, N. Y. . MONTGOMERY HARE, Res. Manager. The amount of its capital is ..... $5,500,000,00

The amount of its capital paid up The Assets of the Company in the United States

> 405,937.50 1,038,422,50

Total assets ..... .$2,411,474.88

D. E. SHERRICK, Auditor of Sta